Well of Mercy Preparing to Bloom

Announcing Plans for Re-opening

Well of Mercy is excited to announce our re-opening phases over the next few months. We have missed you and are looking forward to offering sanctuary to guests once again. The plan is outlined below with the understanding we will remain flexible but are ready to begin taking tentative reservations now. Please know that we are very cautious to protect your safety and our phases will fall a few weeks behind the State of North Carolina. Beginning May 21, we are offering a limited number of guests the opportunity to spend a "Day in Nature" on the property. See details below and follow us on Facebook and Instagram for the latest updates.

Three Phase Approach

Phase 1 - Day in Nature

Outdoor Sanctuary of Treasures

Begins May 21

Register for a
Day in Nature
Well of Mercy Starting May 21st
*Following social distancing guidelines to keep you safe

A "Day in Nature" gives you the opportunity to feel the solid earth beneath your feet, to walk the quiet wooded trails, and to TAKE A DEEP BREATH, to EXHALE, and CONNECT with God. These day visits are the beginning of our gradual reopening. Enjoy an unstructured day in nature.

This "Day in Nature" offers an opportunity for quiet sanctuary in nature on Well of Mercy's 110 acre property. Advance reservations required.

Preparing for Your Visit

Virtual Workshop June 5

Leaning into Lessons of Love from Wise Women

June 5, 2020

1pm-2:30pm

$15

The retreat will include prayers and practices to invoke a healing, sacred space of compassion and awareness of God's love. Our time together will focus on reflections from "The Showings of Julian of Norwich", using the method of Lectio Divina, and including both body and breath prayers.

This online workshop is hosted through ZOOM with Connie Hoffner. Register and watch for future offerings. Register Here

Virtual Vespers

Continue to stay connected with Well of Mercy even if you are yet unable to visit. Join us on Facebook every Wednesday for Virtual Vesper at 5pm. You can also view past videos on our YouTube Channel and obtain current messaging through Instagram and Facebook.

During closure we've been actively preparing for your return.

Prayer stations washed & freshly painted
Landscaped areas trimmed & mulched
Remodeled massage & healing touch space in Catherine's Hearth
Railings washed and stained

Many thanks Kevin, Mike and Randy for keeping the grounds & buildings spiffy.
